Surely [illegible] such capital officers as [illegible] would make, and [illegible] on the part of [illegible] PAYNE.

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Feb 27, 1855.

[illegible] February and on the twenty-[illegible] had been deferred two [illegible] the name of WASHINGTON [illegible] unanimity of it—in the [illegible] and Eighty Hundred and [illegible], which all the centuries [illegible] Genesee hurled upon [illegible] defeated, will be, nay was [illegible] great Sea, the Atlantic [illegible]. The official inaugural [illegible] (as they say) of the Panama Rail [illegible] and doubtless did take [illegible] and although the junction so [illegible] was effected, by bands of [illegible] fellows, it is none the [illegible] deed of far-reaching influence [illegible] and political. It is a [illegible] that this is a purely American [illegible] Government, and it is to us [illegible] source of gratification that [illegible] power—what France [illegible] other nations too, with abundant [illegible] and resources have talked about [illegible], is the great work for the [illegible] of the East and the West, and [illegible] attempted, has been surely, [illegible] effected by a few [illegible] merchants.

[illegible] in the commerce between Europe [illegible] must upon the doubling of [illegible] by VASCO de GAMA, is [illegible] probably by this achievement of the [illegible] Railroad, and the voyages around the [illegible] will be made [illegible] by the Isthmus of Suez, for the [illegible] heavily it is announced that [illegible] for shipping purposes only, are soon [illegible] and henceforth to be regularly [illegible] from this port to Chagres, or Aspinwall, [illegible] of the leading merchant in the [illegible] where the cargoes, transshipped [illegible] railroad in a few hours to Panama, will [illegible] steam sailing vessels on the Pacific [illegible] to the ports of California, of South [illegible], of the Isles of the Pacific, of India, China, [illegible] &c. &c. The voyage and the return can [illegible] be made by steam before a vessel sailing [illegible] the Cape of Good Hope can reach any port in Asia or [illegible] and time in Commerce being essentially [illegible], the world will decide this question in favor [illegible] the Isthmus Rail Road. The success of [illegible] appears will be a great one, in a few years, [illegible] to render Indiapolis a Ship [illegible] between the two Seas—and what such a [illegible] is, is [illegible] Dispensable, they will likewise [illegible] the most [illegible] accomplishing. Whether [illegible] the Nicaragua route, or the Tehuantepec route, [illegible] remains to be seen—but the tide of traffic [illegible] seems to be on the long voyage round the Cape, will [illegible] with such volume to the narrow [illegible] that no Rail Road will suffice for [illegible] demand, and a Canal, a Ship CANAL, that shall float, with them in bulk, cargoes from London or New York to Honolulu or San Francisco [illegible] the Isthmus or even Jeddo, is certainly to be made. In such a career there is no half-way [illegible] and practically the Isthmus—the [illegible] between two great Oceans—has disappeared. Only we had in power at Washington [illegible] statesmen, large-hearted and large-[illegible] to comprehend the great future [illegible] Oriental Republic and their own [illegible] so far that future, quite as much [illegible] and comparatively insignificant [illegible] passing hum—another route [illegible] the whole Continent would forthwith [illegible] and before eyes now sparkling [illegible] shall be dimmed by lapse of [illegible] would be witnesses incessant travel [illegible] nations indented, be were Asia and [illegible] other hemisphere lying as it were the Hall-Way House and general Caravansery of the World.

[illegible] the agencies who have by the [illegible] of either the irreflection of the popular [illegible] elevated to the pedestals of the Giants; [illegible] the country, for which nature and its [illegible] founders have done so much, and for which [illegible] the present day do so little. Possibly [illegible] said, probably, the bitter [illegible] of the [illegible] of new learning, of [illegible] and mischief, even under our [illegible] institutions, weak and wicked [illegible] upon the nation, will [illegible] reaction hereafter. The indications [illegible] plain; one phase, [illegible] and remarkable [illegible] the infamous Many doctrine, that "to the victors belong the spoils"—and which proved [illegible] most fruitful of corrupt men and corrupt [illegible] and the necessary proscribing of [illegible] honesty of action and independence of thought—the [illegible] and stupid sounder, never to be [illegible] of Men once aroused from false security, with [illegible] strength, it may be hoped, [illegible] their confidence, and as with your Republican [illegible] party in Wisconsin, good men, true men, [illegible] men of all parties, creeds and nationalities, [illegible] to the great party of American Freemen—[illegible] their errors and scorning to rob others of freedom, and laying aside old slang names and old party [illegible] will address themselves [illegible] solely and perseveringly to the great duty of saving and saving the Republic by [illegible] its hopes and its destinies in the keeping and control of men of head and heart, of [illegible] integrity and of approved [illegible].

[illegible] A Meeting of the Legislature—On Saturday last the Assembly passed an act to divide ADAMS and organize a new County. In the original bill the name of the new County was "La Valle," but on motion of Mr. HULL, of Grant, and in compliment to one of the old Pioneers of Wisconsin, Col. JACOB JENESS, this unmeaning name was changed to that of JENESS. We heartily approve of the change and cordially endorse the compliment which it was intended to pay. Mr. JENESS, as one of the first settlers of Wisconsin and the founder of MILWAUKEE, was well entitled to this honor.

Adjournment of Congress.

Congress adjourned sine die during last Sunday morning, but failed to reach "some and conclusion" that we know as little of its doings yet, as from Cuba did of the queries put to him at Cleveland. The General Appropriation Bills are passed, of course—they always take of them—and the bill for the increase of the Army, the annual provision for the Military Academy, the Post-rouse bill and some others. The Collins appropriation probably passed, subject to the six months notice for terminating the contract. It is hoped, though not yet known, that the President has signed the bill appropriating $15,000 for the St. Clair Flats. The bill to prop up Slavery and protect Slave-Catchers, by ousting the State Courts of jurisdiction in all cases growing out of the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Act, the direst perished monstrosity in the House, though at time had offered, very like they would have passed it.

In a day or two we shall know just what the late Congress did and what it left undone. There will be few to mourn its final departure from the scene of its shame. It disgraced itself eternally by the Nebraska iniquity, but an effectually roused the People by this infamous act that it will be long indeed before another Pro-Slavery House of Representatives is seen at Washington.

Passage of the Diplomatic and Consular Reform Bill.

The Washington Union of the 2d announces the passage of this bill by the Senate, it having previously passed the House. It abolishes o. fi's and fees and fixes the annual compensation attached to the several missions as follows:

Great Britain,	$ 7,000	Sweden	$7,500
France	7,500	Turkey	9,000

Paris	5,000	Valparaiso	3,000
Havre	5,000

Charges upon invoices and for viseing passports are abolished. Commercial agents are appointed at about one hundred different points to which our commerce extends.

"Hindooism" Again.

The News of yesterday, which omits no opportunity to stir up strife between our Native and Adopted Citizens and thus feeds the very spirit of "Know-Nothingism" which it professes to oppose, states in its yesterday's issue that "the Hindoos" have been holding morning meetings in their Lodge Room in Martin's Block; that they have "agreed to support the Republican ticket," that they "controlled" the Independent City Convention, Saturday, for the purpose of nominating some of their own friends; and the last, but by no means least lie of all, that this is reason why "the Sentinel insists that our Irish and German friends shall be ruled off the course."

Each and all of these statements are deliberate fabrications, without the slightest foundation or truth to palliate their infamy, and put forth for no other or better purpose than to deceive our Adopted Citizens, to rouse their prejudices and rally them, if possible, in mass, to the support of the so-called Democratic ticket. Is it possible that they can be influenced by such shallow and shameless falsehoods?

A Plump Contradiction.

In the debate which occurred the last week in the U. S. Senate, Mr. Douglas took occasion to assert that the election of Gov. Moore as State Treasurer of Illinois was a test as between Nebraska and anti-Nebraska—that the anti Nebraskaites did not vote for him, and that Judge Trumbull owed his elections to the Know Nothings. The following telegraphic despatch—received at Washington in reply to one sent to Mr. Trumbull put a clincher to the business and places Mr. Douglas in a fix:

"ALTON, Ill. Saturday Feb. 24, 1855.

"I was absent myself election day. The Anti-Nebraska Democrats in this District supported Moore for Treasurer. Know-Nothingism had nothing to do with my election.

(signed) LYMAN TRUMBULL,

PROFESSOR DANIELS.—The Barstow organs, no satisfied with defending the cause of the Governor in removing Mr. DANIELS, as State Geologist, pursue the former gentleman with inexcusable malignity and seek in every way to rob him of his well-earned professional character. What that character is, among those competent to judge, may be readily inferred from the following paragraph in the Boston Atlas of Feb. 26, at the close of an article discussing and condemning his removal.

In regard to Mr. Daniels, we had the pleasure of meeting him, when on a visit to this city about a year since, and were much pleased with the evidences he gave of his earnest zeal in the prosecution of his survey, his intelligence and his abilities. He is esteemed, by all the first geologists of the country who know him, a gentleman in every way qualified for the successful discharge of the duties assigned to him; and his removal, under the circumstances of the case, is justly looked upon as an outrage far beyond the worst case of inexcusable partisan proscription, without even the excuse or justification of legality

THE CHILD OF TWO MOTHERS.—The trial between the rival claimants to the boy taken by Dr. HYDE-CHAMBERLAIN, Indian Superintendent, from some members of the PARTRIDGE family, in Illinois, which was to have come off before Judge SMITH, of our State Court, on the 6th inst., is deferred in consequence of the unavoidable absence of the latter. We understand, however, that the Judge has made an order directing the Sheriff, in whose charge the boy has been for some weeks past, to return him to Dr. Huebschmann; the latter agreeing to keep him here two days to allow the other party (the PARTRIDGES) time to get out another writ of Habeas Corpus before some other Judge, should they think fit to do so.

P. S.—THE BOY STOLEN!—Since the above was in type we learn that the Indian (or White as the case may be,) is missing. He either "strayed," or was stolen from the Jail Yard in this city yesterday afternoon. The Partridge change this kidnapping upon the Indians; the Indians on the Partridges; both denying all knowledge of the boy's whereabouts. We learn that Sheriff Conover that Monday week the boy made an attempt to escape from his custody, but was caught and prevented. It is possible that he may have repeated the attempt with more success yesterday. Dr. Huebschmann seems to think that the Partridges have got him, and intends to reclaim him for his Indian friends, if it be possible.

The Sheriff offers a reward of $100 for the recovery of the boy. He informs us that he has admitted both the Indians and the Partridge family to see the boy, and throughout the time the boy has been in his care, he has treated him in every respect, with the same care as one of his own children.

☞ A Republican State Convention to nominate Congressmen known to be opposed to the encroachments of the Slave power and the Nebraska bill is called at Providence, R. I., for the 8th of March.

Rhode Island makes the sixth State in which a Republican organization has been effected. Before another year has rolled round, this number will be doubled, if not trebled.

A Voice from Connecticut.

The Weekly Jeffersonian, an excellent democratic paper, published at the county seat of Jefferson County, gives in its last issue, a letter from a correspondent in Connecticut, of which we copy a large portion:

——, Conn., Feb. 7th, 1855.

MESSRS EDITORS—

For five long weeks have I not received a single number of the 'Jeffersonian.' Are you dead? if so, is your ghost appear to me. Or is the fountain of news dried up or exhausted? Surely that cannot be, whilst Wisconsin—God bless her!—is clothing herself as she is, with glory and honor. Yes, God bless Wisconsin! and he will. God bless her Judiciary, that have stood up so nobly and boldly for the RIGHT! that have manifested to the world that in their view there is a "higher law" than the despotic and oppressive "Fugitive Slave Law," and that they have set an example before the rest of the Free States worthy of imitation. Let but the Courts of the Northern States take the stand taken by Wisconsin, and the country is safe—the Union is safe, because they will be on the side of right and justice, but where these are wanting, danger is imminent!

God bless her Legislature! that by the election of a man to the United States Senate, who, as Mr. SUMNER says, is possessed of backbone, have manifested that they, too, are determined to rest the aggressions of the Slave power.—Other men might have been found among the fathers of Wisconsin, equally anti-slavery, but less abolitionist than DURKEE, there is TWEEDY and MARSHALL M. STRONG, and others whom I could name, whose election would have pleased me better, but under the existing circumstances, perhaps as it is, is better for us.

And God bless the people of Wisconsin, who by sustaining such a Judiciary, and electing such a Legislature, show that in Wisconsin at least, those great rights, guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States—the right of habeas corpus and the right of trial by Jury—and guaranteed before the Constitution by the Compact and Ordinance of 1787—to every inhabitant thereof—must and shall be maintained. That as a people they know their rights, and knowing, dare maintain." Again I say, God bless Wisconsin.

New York, too, by the re-election of Seward, the friend of the slave, the friend of the foreigner, and the friend of freedom every where, has manifested her determined and continued hostility to the slave-power of the South; and not only this, but especially her hostility to that most dangerous, because secret aggression against the rights of citizenship and freedom of conscience, called not unpropriately—Know Nothingism.

☞ The Louisville Journal in some severe remarks against the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, for its decision in the BOOTH case, says:

The truth is, and it is quite idle to deny what every cultivated, enlightened foreigner perceives at a glance, that as a people, we are not a whit more than half civilized.

In reply, the Cleveland Herald pertinently asks: "And for proof of this assertion we point to the Fugitive Slave Law, which permits a being having an immortal soul to be driven into human bondage, upon less formality than is required to drive your stray hog back to its pen."

THE MILWAUKEE & MISSISSIPPI RAIL ROAD.—The Prairie du Chien Courier, in noticing the annual election for Officers and Directors of the M. & M. R. R. Company, takes occasion to say:

"The enterprise is truly in a prosperous condition. Since the election Messrs Ray and Clinton have visited this place and have succeeded in increasing the stock owned here to $200,000. They are now on a tour through Grant County, taking stock. We are now authorized to announce that it is the settled purpose of the Company to let the contracts and commence the work along the whole line from Madison here, the coming spring."

Props for Slavery.

The Fugitive Slave Law having proved to be so repugnant to the common sense of justice and the Statute Laws of the States that it cannot be enforced in any ordinary Court, a bill is now passed to bring all cases growing out of it before Courts which consist of Judges not elected by the people, but appointed by the authorities at Washington.

How do that will not hunt, are whipped. The North is the hound the South uses to hunt its Slaves. Not having done it well, its masters raise the lash.

But there is one fact proved by this bill, as glaring as indisputable. Slavery is growing weaker. It found it could not depend upon the People of the Northern States many years ago, when they abolished it here, and ratified JEFFERSON's ordinance in Ohio. It found it could not depend on their Governors from the day when Governor Seward refused to comply with the requisitions of Virginia and Georgia. It found it could not depend on their Legislatures, when Vermont, New York, Michigan and Massachusetts began to pass laws to protect their citizens and resolutions instructing their representatives to side with Freedom. It found it could not depend on State Courts, when Judge Paine applied the law to the LEMMON Case, and the Supreme Court of Wisconsin acquitted BOOTH. It finds that under the peaceful revolutions of the Ballot box, it may even lose control next year of Congress, and it trembles lest 1856 shall close the reigning dynasty of Pro-Slavery Presidents. It is retreating, therefore, to its last stronghold—the Federal Judiciary. There, backed by old Form and Precedent and rooted Prejudice, it is preparing for a last determined resistance.

It is no disrespect to Courts to say that they are conservative alike of the right and the wrong. They are administrators of the Law, not makers of it. They uphold that which is established, be it good or bad. They are the last appeal of injured Rights and the last sanctuary of weary Abuse. For when the Dutch is gained, all is gained. Slavery had ceased in Great Britain in fact for many years before her Courts dared to declare "no Slave can breathe the air of England." Our Judges are appointed by the President and appointed for life. So that before there will be anti-Slavery Bench, there must be not only anti-Slavery Laws and anti-Slavery Presidents, but a long succession of them. Those who fear that the coming Reform is going too fast or too far, can derive satisfaction from the contemplation of this barrier. We take this latest move of Slavery, as a hauling down of its black flag from the outworks, and a retreat to the inner citadel. But there is no citadel strong enough to shelter Error. We expect to see Slavery beat its last retreat from that also, and then, turned into a Fortress of Freedom, it will be impregnable.—[Albany Evening Journal.

VISIT TO LANCASTER.—Business led us, a week or two ago, for the first time since the building of the new Court House, to visit the city of Lancaster, which rejoices in being the seat of Justice in and for Grant county. We found her merchants, mechanics and professional men full of business, and were glad to find Lancaster had improved so much within the last two years—Lancaster has a pleasant location, in the midst of beautiful groves and rolling prairies, but, owing to various causes, prominent among which was the fact that the greater portion of the lands in the vicinity of the village were held by speculators, at prices above the views of settlers, she has owed the most of her prosperity to the fact of having been the county seat for about twenty years. Lately, however, these lands have been thrown into market, and, as well as large quantities of second rate government lands, at the low price fixed by the Graduation Act, have been eagerly bought up by actual settlers. Lancaster will soon be surrounded by a dense farming population, and a prosperous future seems to be opening before her.—[Plattsville American.

A COMPANY DOING BUSINESS BY TELEGRAPH.—The Albany Argus states that a few evenings since, some business exigency on the Morse line demanded an immediate meeting of the Board of Directors. Ordinarily, this is no easy task, as the directors line "all along" the line from Buffalo to New York, but the question to be decided being one of some importance, a "meeting by telegraph was ordered." After the line had been closed for business—each member of the board having in the meantime, been notified by telegraph—the presiding officer opened the meeting, he living at Utica, and the business to be transacted was sent along the line, to each and every member. Votes were taken, motions put, seconded and carried, while the mover was hundreds of miles removed from the party seconding the same; objections were raised, speeches made and responded to, the same as though there had been a convention of the politics in a twelve by eight room. This is what we call doing business by telegraph to a great purpose.

SCENE IN THE NEW JERSEY SENATE.—The Prohibitory Drinking Law in the New Jersey Legislature, was lost in the Senate, by a vote of 10 Nays to 9 Ayes. The announcement of the result was received in the crowded galleries not meekly. From that popular height descended a storm of hissing. The Senate Chamber was thrown into the greatest confusion. Ladies hissed and sneered in the most vindictive fashion. The session was adjourned, and then poured on to the floor an angry crowd, who sharply criticised and condemned the act by which the People of New Jersey were cheated of their just expectations.—[Buffalo Democracy.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Mr. Wm. Lee, having been solicited to divide up his lot, on the corner of Oneida and Main Streets, so as to enable persons with small means to obtain business locations, has done so, and on Saturday sold two 33 by 50 feet lots on the west end to Mr. Siddell, and Harper & Brother, for $2900. There is a part of the lot yet for sale, on which is a good brick house.—Free Democrat.

A Word to Tax Payers.

The Election to-day determines the character of our City Government for a year to come, and the result of that election depends upon the TAX-PAYERS. How much the Administration of our City Officers for the past year has cost them individually they know without our telling them. The bill was an exorbitant one, but it had to be paid. There is no escaping the Tax-gatherer; but there is such a thing as cutting down his bills. This, however, must be done, if done at all, at the commencement of the political year. If you wait till the middle, or the close, you will find all interference unavailing. In other words: it is at the Annual Charter Election that TAX-PAYERS must provide against the visits of the Tax-Gatherer. It is only by choosing honest, competent and practical men—men who are accustomed to manage their own business carefully and successfully—to take charge of the complicated, costly and steadily enlarging machinery of our City Government, that expenditures can be kept within reasonable bounds, taxes reduced to their fair limits, and city affairs managed, not with a view to individual profit or political interests, but with strict regard to the public interest and the public welfare. It is for TAX-PAYERS to say whether such men shall be elected To-DAY. Is it not wiser, and better and cheaper for each and every one of them, to devote this day to the business of Election, and to an honest and determined effort to secure the BEST MEN for our City Officers, than to suffer the election to go by default, and pay for their neglect or indifference at the end of the year, in the shape of another sweating TAX? Let them answer at the POLLS

Shut To-day!

Upon the last election day, the closing of the saloons was undoubtedly the means of securing the most quiet election day ever had in this city; and the closing of the saloons was the more creditable to their proprietors, because voluntary.—Will not the proprietors pursue the same course to-day? We hope to be able to—morrow to record another peaceful election day having passed. Those gentlemen, who on the last election day shut their saloons, must have seen the benefit they conferred upon the whole city, by their voluntarily refusing to sell liquor on an election day; and as it was productive of so much good on that last, we hope they will follow the same plan to-day, and that the memorable words, "SHUT TO-DAY," will again decorate the saloons and be [illegible] halls. To every man who takes pride in the peace and quietness of our city; in the right of every voter to proceed to the polls and vote as his conscience may direct, peaceably; to every one who wishes for, and loves good order, peace and quietness, and the prevention of fights, riots, and perhaps bloodshed, the words "SHUT TO-DAY," will carry force, and their import will be respected and obeyed. The example last year was set by some of the Best men in the city, and if this morning they again take the lead, many others will be induced to follow, and the effect will be a second quiet and orderly election day; and none can have greater cause for just pride than those who first closed their saloons, and hung upon their doors the best sentence for the preservation of peace on election days—SHUT TO-DAY.

The Lecture To-Night.

We anticipate a full house at YOUNG's Hall to hear JOHN PIERPONT's "Golden Calf," this evening. Mr. PIERPONT has had several occasions to become pretty well known in the course of his life, and we believe has generally managed to do very much as he had a mind to, in spite of opposition. When he has chosen to do so, he has preached temperance to a congregation of distillers, and whore they didn't like it, he has preached temperance again; and when he has thought he could make an improved razor strop, he has made razor strops, notwithstanding its offence to an aristocratic society; he has written anti-slavery odes when anti-slavery was an odious term, and we expect that in the "Golden Calf," he will say just what JOHN PIERPONT thinks, without the least reference to whom he may hit.

The Cleveland Herald, in announcing a second lecture from Mr. Pierpont, says—

Those who were present at his reading of "The Golden Calf," will be gratified to learn that they can again enjoy a similar treat, for we venture to say that no lecture has so delighted an audience in Cleveland as that.

SPRING IS COMING!—And yesterday was a voucher for the welcome fact. The air was balmy and delightful; the sunshine warm and bright, and the snow and ice dissolved rapidly under the warm breath of a glorious Spring day. A few days more of such weather will carry off every trace of winter and inaugurate the season of navigation for 1855.

City Marshal.

We are requested by Mr. W. R. PERRY to say that after a full survey of the field and in deference to the wishes of many friends, he has concluded to withdraw his name as a candidate for City Marshal.

City Independent Convention.

THE Convention met at 10 o'clock, S. S. DAGGETT in the Chair.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Mayor in the place of CICERO COMSTOCK, declined.

JAMES B. MARTIN received 18 votes, and was unanimously declared the candidate of the Convention. Before the Convention had dispersed, the following communication was received from JAMES B. MARTIN. The President called the delegates to order, and the Secretary read the following

Letter from Mr. Martin.

GENTLEMEN:—I have just received information that the "People's Convention," now in session, have made choice of my name to be submitted to my fellow-citizens for their suffrages at the approaching Charter election, for Mayoralty of the city.

For the honor you have conferred upon me, and the kindness received from your hands, I return you my unfeigned thanks.

Believing that it is a duty which every person owes his fellow-citizens when called upon by the people to serve them in a public capacity, to so willingly, if he can conscientiously and consistently, and knowing that no one has a right to accept of any public office, no matter how small or great, or to engage in any important public duty, unless he is willing and intends to give it all the time, care, and attention, which it may demand—situated as I am at present, business requires all my time and care. My own business I would be willing should in a measure, be neglected to serve my fellow-citizens, but I cannot neglect that business which has been entrusted to my care by those at home and abroad, and some of them widows and orphans, for any worldly honor or consideration; for by so doing. I should fall far short of that rule which I have endeavored to make the standard of my life:—Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you.

My engagements are such that I expect to be absent from the city at least one-quarter of the present year, which of itself is sufficient reason why I should not accept.

Hoping that you may make choice of some one who will be a MAN, and an honor and credit to our city—(a Mayor Wood, of New York,) one who will discharge his duties honestly, fearlessly and freely, not courting the smiles of the rich and neglecting the poor, but acknowledging them all as one family, and doing that which will be the greatest good to the greatest number; and without fear or favor, asking nothing and expecting nothing but the smiles of Heaven and the proud satisfaction of knowing that he has done his duty, his whole duty and nothing but his duty.

In after time, if I should be so situated as to serve you, and you should see fit to elect me, I would most cheerfully avail myself of the honor, and do all in my power to serve the people and advance the enviable name that we now enjoy, and the high rank which we hold among the cities of this union—numbered among the first in industry and enterprise, manufactures, and commerce;—a free-born city; an anti-Nebraska city; a city which has done so much to bring countless numbers to our shores to enjoy the same privileges and blessings which we now enjoy—equal liberty, equal laws and equal justice, and would that I could add a home for the homeless—120 acres for every man.

Yours truly,
JAMES B. MARTIN.

To the Delegates of the City Convention.

After the letter had been read by the Secretary, Mr. G. D. NORRIS moved that JAMES B. MARTIN be declared the nominee of the Convention, and that it adjourn and elect him. Carried. Convention adjourned.

THE MAYOR'S NOTICE.—It will be seen that Mayor KILBOURN unites with the Sentinel in calling upon the Proprietors of all Taverns, Groceries, Beer Halls &c. to sell no Liquor on Election Day. The Mayor indeed, in a "postcript" of questionable taste, invites them to "let her go" after 4 P. M. We hope, however, that they will keep their bars closed so long as the Polls remain open (till 5 P. M.) at least.

PROCLAMATION.

BY THE MAYOR.

To all Tavern Keepers, Grocerymen and Bier Hall Keepers.

You are respectfully requested to keep closed against the sale of any Liquor, Wine or Beer, on election day, until 4 o'clock in the afternoon This is to preserve the good order and good name of the City, in which I expect all good citizens to unite with me.

BYRON KILBOURN, Mayor.

P. S.—After 4 o'clock P. M., you can "let her go."

Police Court—March 5.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH ESQ. POLICE JUSTICE.

A warrant was issued against John Lipscomb, on complaint of Charles Foster, charging a threat to commit an assault and beat the complainant.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Caleb Wall sold yesterday, lots 1 and 2, block 24 Eastman's subdivision, First Ward, being 66 feet on Division St., (north side,) by 180 deep, for $2500.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the forenoon the Court was occupied on a Replevin Suit, between Clarendon Roes, plaintiff, and John Swain, defendant. The Jury found the property to be in the plaintiff. In the afternoon, Louis Filliner was placed in trial for resisting Constable Fisher while in the execution of his duty.

WITHDRAWN.—GEO. A. MCGARRIGLE, who last week announced himself as an independent candidate for constable of the First Ward, has withdrawn from the canvass and will support the candidate for that office, nominated at the First Ward People's caucus.

☞ We hope the democrats of the 1st Ward will not forget the nominee for Assessor, P. NICHOLS, but give him such a majority as his Hindoo opponent will remember for a season—Wisconsin.

The "Hindoo opponent" at whom this illmannered fling is aimed, is JAMES MURRAY, a good mechanic, an upright and intelligent citizen; a Scotchman by birth, and an American by adoption. He has once before filled the office of Assessor in the First Ward, and acquitted himself to the entire acceptation of the public—Being an adopted citizen, it is not surprising that the Know-Nothing Wisconsin should stigmatize him as a "Hindoo."

MR. SHOVER.—On Saturday we should have said that we, (and not Mr. SHOVER, the independent candidate in the First Ward,) considered that Mr. SHOVER will beat Dr. WOLCOTT out of sight. —[Wisconsin.

Exactly. There is a material difference in value between Mr. SHOVER's opinion and that of the Wisconsin on this point.

Horticultural Society.

At the annual meeting of the Milwaukee Horticultural Society, held March 3d, 1855, the meeting was called to order by the Vice President, and in the absence of the Secretary, R. Chandler was appointed Secretary pro tem.

Several amendments to the constitution were proposed, adopted and ordered printed. The Report of the Treasurer for 1854, was read, accepted and adopted. After transacting other business of importance, the Society proceeded to the election of Officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

President—Charles Gifford.
Vice Presidents—Henry Williams, B. McVicker.
Corresponding Secretary—Robert Chandler.
Recording Secretary—R. W. Parker.
Treasurer—D. Ferguson.
Executive Committee—O. H. Hurd, S. B. Grant, J. B. Doesman.

It was Resolved, That the first Exhibition of the Society be held on the last Thursday of June next.

On motion adjourned.

CHAS. GIFFORD, President.
ROBT. CHANDLER, Secretary pro tem.

Look out for Illegal Votes!

At the Election in this City last November upwards of ONE THOUSAND Illegal Votes were offered at the different Polls, and excluded by the vigilance and determination of the Challengers. There will be an attempt to-day to rush in votes in certain Wards to help some hard-run candidates and the attempt will succeed, if not met and defeated by prompt and resolute challenging. There should be at least two good Challengers at each Poll, to challenge unhesitatingly every man offering to vote who is not known to be a qualified Elector.

SPECIAL POLICE.—The following Special Constables were sworn in yesterday for duty at the polls to-day:

1st Ward—A. Lienhart, Jno. Hardey, M. Higgins, Simeon Lerry.

2d Ward—L. N. Dewey, J. B. Neyer, Conrad Sass.

3d Ward—J. H. Cordes, J. French, Daniel Murphy.

4th Ward—P. Cannon, James Sprague, John Esch.

5th Ward—M. Page, F. Conrad, James Lewis.

If the Saloons and Drinking Shops are "shut to-day," there will be but little for these Special Constables to do.

Retrenchment and Reform.

The News of yesterday makes a very elaborate, though very lame attempt to convict the Sentinel of inconsistency, in urging Municipal "retrenchment and reform," because last fall we condemned the unheard-of and extravagant allowance of $500 to Dist. Attorney MALLORY for defending CONNAUGHTY and the other day, in our report of the proceedings in the Circuit Court, embodied the generally expressed surprise of the public at Mr. MALLORY's undertaking to prosecute Fassbinder for murder without associate Counsel.

As to the first, we have only to say that the entire press and public—the News alone excepted—united in condemning the action of the Supervisors. And as to the last, the Sentinel did but give utterance to the general opinion in and out of the Court-Room. The remarkably sagacious opinion of the News that the Sentinel wanted to transfer a $500 fee, from the pockets of the people to those of some "personal or partizan favorite," as counsel in said case, is too transparently silly to need reply.

REDEEMED FROM SLAVERY.—The fugitive Slave ANTHONY BURNS, who was captured and carried back to Virginia last year, at an expense to the General Government of about what it would cost to give us a good Harbor at Milwaukee, has been purchased from his master by some Boston gentlemen for the sum of $1500 and restored to liberty. Uncle Sam's services and expenses in the premises seem to have been "love's labor lost."

Vote on the Liquor Law!

The following is the vote in the Assembly by which the Prohibitory Liquor Law was passed:

AYES—Messrs. Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bond, Chase, Colley, Davis, Downs, Field, Filer, Gary, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Howard, Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee, Love, Martin, McIndoe, Merriam, Merrill, Mosher, Parker, Pratt, Randall, Ribble, Rose, Sherman, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Townsend, Virgin, Wakely Warren, Welch, Wherry, White, Williston, Sholes, Speaker—32.

NOE—Messrs.

Possibly [illegible] said, probably, the latter [illegible] but what [illegible] we are now learning, of how [illegible] and mischief, even under our [illegible] institutions, weak and wicked [illegible] upon the nation, will [illegible] Retribution hereafter. The iniquitous [illegible] party, cost phue, dompled in and [illegible] by the infamous Marcy doctrine, that "to the victors belong the spoils"—and which [illegible] of their most fruitful of corrupt men and corrupt [illegible] and the necessary proscribing of all [illegible] of action and independence of thought—this [illegible] has supped asunder, never to be [illegible]. Men once armed from false [illegible], will not [illegible], it may be hoped, [illegible] their [illegible], and as with your Republican [illegible] in Wisconsin, good men, true men, [illegible] men of all parties, creeds and nationalities, [illegible] to the great party of American Freemen—[illegible] and scorning to rob others of liberty—and [illegible] laying aside old slang names and old [illegible] names will address themselves [illegible], vigorously and perseveringly to the great duty [illegible] saving and saving the Republic by placing the [illegible] its hopes and its destinies in the keeping and control of men of head and heart, of [illegible] and integrity and of approved morality.

A Mean [illegible] Last Saturday last the Assembly passed an Act to divide Adams and organize a new County. In the original bill the name of the new County was "La Valle," but on motion of Mr. Hull, of Grant, and in compliment to one of the old Pioneers of Wisconsin, Col. Jack Jones, the unmeaning name was changed to that of Jones. We heartily approve of the change and cordially endorse the compliment which it was intended to pay. Mr. Jones, as one of the first settlers of Wisconsin and the founder of Milwaukee, was well entitled to this honor.

Adjournment of Congress.

Congress adjourned sine die at 12 o'clock during last Sunday morning. It had much "done and considered" that we know as little of its doings yet, as Gen. Cass did of the queries put to him at Cleveland. The General Appropriation Bills are passed, of course—they always take care of them and the bill for the increase of the Army, the annual provision for the Military Academy, the Post-route bill and some others. The Collins appropriation probably passed, subject to the six months notice for terminating the contract. It is hoped, though not yet known, that the President has signed the bill appropriating $15,000 for the St. Clair Flats. The bill to prop up Slavery and protect Slave-Catchers, by ousting the State Courts of jurisdiction in all cases growing out of the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Act, doubtless perished ignominiously in the House, though in time had offered, very like they would have passed it.

In a day or two we shall know just what the late Congress did and what it left undone. There will be few to mourn its final departure from the scene of its shame. It disgraced itself eternally by the Nebraska Iniquity, but so effectually roused the People by this infamous act that it will be long indeed before another Pro-Slavery House of Representatives is seen at Washington.

Passage of the Diplomatic and Consular Reform Bill.

The Washington Union of the 23d announces the passage of this bill by the Senate, it having previously passed the House. It abolishes a fifth and fifth and fixes the annual compensation attached to the several missions as follows:

Great Britain,	$ 7,000	Sweden	$7,500
France	7,500	Turkey	9,000
Spain	12,000	Russia	15,000
Russia	12,000	Brazil	12,000
Switzerland	7,500	Peru	10,000
Rome	7,500	Chili	9,000
Prussia	7,500	Argentine Republic	7,500
Austria	7,500	New Granada	7,500
Sardinia	7,500	Bolivia	7,500
Hesse Cassel	7,500	Ecuador	7,500
Holland	7,500	Venezuela	7,500
Portugal	7,500	Guatemala	7,500
Denmark	7,500	Nicaragua	7,500
Mexico	12,000	Mexico	12,000

Average rate of compensation of twenty-eight full Ministers and Ministers Resident $259,500

The Secretaries of these legations are to receive salaries of three grades, to wit: $2,500, $2,000, and $1,500 a year. The salary of the Commissioner to the Sandwich Islands is to be $5,000. Consuls are to be appointed at the following places, and with salaries as subjoined, under the prohibition, however, of transacting business in their own names, or through others:

London	$7,500	Maracaibo	$3,500
Liverpool	7,500	Bordeaux	2,000
Hull	4,000	Cadiz	1,000
Dundee	2,000	Havana	6,000
Newcastle	1,500	Trinidad de Cuba	3,000
Leeds	1,500	Rio	1,500
Belfast	2,000	Antwerp	2,500
Hong Kong	3,000	St. Petersburgh	2,500
Calcutta	3,500	Bremen	2,000
Manila	2,000	Hamburg	2,000
Melbourne	4,000	Vera Cruz	3,500
Sydney	2,000	San Juan del Norte	2,000
Kingston, (Jamaica)	2,000	Coal Juan del Sur	2,000
Aspinwall	2,000	Panama	2,500
Amsterdam	1,000	Acapulwall	2,500
Aix la Chapelle	2,000	St. Jonaico	6,000
Paris	5,000	Callao	3,500
Rome	5,000	Valparaiso	3,000

Charges upon invoices and for visaing passports are abolished. Commercial agents are appointed at about one hundred different ports to which our commerce extends.

"Hindooism" Again.

The News of yesterday, which omits no opportunity to stir up strife between our Native and Adopted Citizens and thus feeds the very spirit of "Know-Nothingism" which it professes to oppose, states in its yesterday's issue that "the Hindoos" have been holding morning meetings in their Lodge Room in Martin's Block; that they have "agreed to support the Republican ticket," that they "controlled" the Independent City Convention, Saturday, for the purpose of nominating some of their own friends; and the last, but by no means least lie of all, that this is reason why "the Sentinel insists that our Irish and German friends shall be ruled off the course."

Each and all of these statements are deliberate fabrications, without the slightest foundation or truth to palliate their infamy, and put forth for no other or better purpose than to deceive our Adopted Citizens, to rouse their prejudices and rally them, if possible, in mass, to the support of the so-called Democratic ticket. Is it possible that they can be influenced by such shallow and shameless falsehoods?

A Plump Contradiction.

In the debate which occurred the last week in the U. S. Senate, Mr. Douglas took occasion to assert that the election of Gov. Moore as State Treasurer of Illinois was a test as between Nebraska and anti-Nebraska—that the anti Nebraskaites did not vote for him, and that Judge Trumbull owed his elections to the Know Nothings. The following telegraphic despatch—received at Washington in reply to one sent to Mr. Trumbull put as a clincher to the business and places Mr. Douglas in a fix:

ALTON, Ill. Saturday Feb. 24, 1855.

"I was always myself election day. The Anti-Nebraska Democrats in this District supported Moore for Treasurer. Know-Nothingism had not[illegible] to do with my election.

(signed) LYMAN TRUMBULL,

Professor Daniels.—The Harstow organs, not satisfied with defending the cause of the Governor in removing Mr. Daniels, as State Geologist, pursue the former gentleman with inexcusable malignity and seek in every way to rob him of his well-earned professional character. What that character is, among those competent to judge, may be readily inferred from the following paragraph in the Boston Atlas of Feb. 26, at the close of an article discussing and condemning his removal.

In regard to Mr. Daniels, we had the pleasure of meeting him, when on a visit to this city about [illegible] since, and were much pleased with the evidences he gave of his earnest zeal in the prosecution of his survey, his intelligence and his abilities. He is esteemed, by all the first geologists of the country who know him, a gentleman in every way qualified for the successful discharge of the duties assigned to him; and his removal, under the circumstances of the case, is justly looked upon as an outrage far beyond the worst case of inexcusable partisan proscription, without even the excuse or justification of legality

The Child of Two Mothers.—The trial between the rival claimants to the boy taken by Dr. Hirrs-chmann, Indian Superintendent, from some members of the Partridge family, in Illinois, which was to have come off before Judge Smith, of our State Court, on the 6th inst., is deferred in consequence of the unavoidable absence of the latter. We understand, however, that the Judge has made an order directing the Sheriff, in whose charge the boy has been for some weeks past, to return him to Dr. Huebschmann; the latter agreeing to keep him here two days to allow the other party (the Partridges) time to get out another writ of Habeas Corpus before some other Judge, should they think fit to do so.

P. S.—The Boy Stolen!—Since the above was in type we learn that the Indian (or White as the case may be,) is missing. He either "strayed," or was stolen from the Jail Yard in this city yesterday afternoon. The Partridge charge this kidnapping upon the Indians; the Indians on the Partridges; both denying all knowledge of the boy's whereabouts. We learn from Sheriff Conover that Monday week the boy made an attempt to escape from his custody, but was caught and prevented. It is possible that they can be influenced by such shallow and shameless falsehoods?

A Voice from Connecticut.

The Weekly Jeffersonian, an excellent democratic paper, published at the county seat of Jefferson County, gives in its last issue, a letter from a correspondent in Connecticut, of which we copy a large portion:

——, Conn., Feb. 7th, 1855.

Messrs Editors—

For five long weeks have I not received a single number of the "Jeffersonian." Are you dead? if so, let your ghost appear to me. Or is the fountain of news dried up or exhausted? Surely that cannot be, whilst Wisconsin—God bless her!—is clothing herself as she is, with glory and honor. Yes, God bless Wisconsin! and he will. God bless her Judiciary, that have stood up so nobly and boldly for the Right! that have manifested to the world that in their view there is a "high r law" than the despotic and oppressive "Fugitive Slave Law," and that they have set an example before the rest of the Free States worthy of imitation. Let but the Courts of the Northern States take the stand taken by Wisconsin, and the country is safe—the Union is safe, because they will be on the side of right and justice, but where these are wanting, danger is imminent.

God bless her Legislature! that by the election of a man to the United States Senate, who, as Mr. Sumner says, is possessed of backbone, have manifested that they, too, are determined to rest the aggressions of the Slave power.—Other men might have been found among the fathers of Wisconsin, equally anti-slavery but less abolitionist than Durkee, there is Twaddy and Marshall M. Strong, and others whom I could name, whose election would have pleased me better, but under the existing circumstances, perhaps this better as it is.

And God bless the people of Wisconsin, who by sustaining such a Judiciary, and electing such a Legislature, show that in Wisconsin at least, those great rights, guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States—the right of habeas corpus and the right of trial by Jury—and guaranteed before the Constitution by the Compact and Ordinance of 1787—to every inhabitant thereof—must and shall be maintained. That as a people they "know their rights, and knowing, dare maintain." Again I say, God bless Wisconsin.

Now York too, by the re-election of Seward, the friend of the slave, the friend of the foreigner, and the friend of freedom everywhere, has manifested her determined and continued hostility to the slave-power of the South; and not only this, but especially her hostility to that most dangerous, because secret aggression against the rights of citizenship and freedom of conscience, called not unappropriately—Know Nothingism.

☞ The Louisville Journal in some severe remarks against the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, for its decision in the Booth case, says:

The truth is, and it is quite idle to deny what every cultivated, enlightened foreigner perceives at a glance, that as a people, we are not a whit more than half civilized.

In reply, the Cleveland Herald pertinently adds: "And for proof of this assertion we point to the Fugitive Slave Law, which permits a being having an immortal soul to be driven into human bondage, upon less formality than is required to drive your stray hog back to its pen."

The Milwaukee & Mississippi Rail Road.—The Prairie du Chien Courier, in noticing the annual election for Officers and Directors of the M. & M. R. R. Company, takes occasion to say:

"The enterprize is truly in a prosperous condition. Since the election Messrs Ray and Clinton have visited this place and have succeeded in increasing the stock owned here to $200,000. They are now on a tour through Grant County, taking stock. We are now authorized to announce that it is the settled purpose of the Company to let the contracts and co mence the work along the whole line from Madison here, the coming spring."

Props for Slavery.

The Fugitive Slave Law having proved to be no support to the common sense of justice and the Statute Laws of the States that it cannot be enforced in any ordinary Court, a bill is now passed to bring all cases growing out of it before Courts which consist of Judges not elected by the people, but appointed by the authorities at Washington.

How do that will not hunt, are whipped. The North is the hound the South uses to hunt its Slaves. Not having done it well, its masters raise the lash.

But there is one fact proved by this bill, as gratifying as indisputable. Slavery is growing weaker. It found it could not depend upon the People of the Northern States many years ago, when they abolished Jay-ism here, and ratified Jefferson's ordinance in Ohio. It found it could not depend on their Governors from the day when Governor Seward refused to comply with the requisitions of Virginia and Georgia. It found it could not depend on their Legislatures, when Vermont, New York, Michigan and Massachusetts began to pass laws to protect their citizens and resolutions instructing their representatives to side with Freedom. It found it could not depend on State Courts, when Judge Paine applied the law to the Leamon Case, and the Supreme Court of Wisconsin acquitted Booth. It finds that under the peaceful revolutions of the ballot box, it may even lose control next year of Congress, and if it troubles last 1856 shall close the reigning dynasty of Pro-Slavery Presidents. It is retreating, therefore, to its last stronghold—the Federal Judiciary. There, backed by old Norm and Precedent and rooted Prejudice, it is preparing for a last determined resistance.

It is no disrespect to Courts to say that they are conservative alike of the right and the wrong. They are administrators of the Law, not makers of it. They uphold that which is established, be it good or bad. They are the last appeal of injured Rights and the last sanctuary of many Abuses. For when the Bench is gained, all is gained. Slavery had ceased in Great Britain in fact for many years before her Courts dared to declare "no Slave can breathe the air of England." Our Judges are appointed by the President and appointed for life. So that before there will be anti-Slavery Bench, there must be not only anti-Slavery Laws and anti-Slavery Presidents, but a long succession of them. Those who fear that the coming Reform is going too fast or too far, can derive satisfaction from the contemplation of this barrier. We take right latest move of Slavery, as a leading town of its black flag from the outworks, and a retreat to the inner citadel. But there is no citadel strong enough to shelter Error. We expect to see Slavery beat its last retreat from that also, and then, turned into a Fortress of Freedom, it will be impregnable.—[Albany Evening Journal.

Visit to Lancaster.—Business led us, a week or two ago, for the first time since the building of the new Court House, to visit the city of Lancaster, which rejoices in being the seat of Justice in and for Grant county. We found her merchants, mechanics and professional men full of business, and were glad to find Lancaster had improved so much within the last two years.—Lancaster has a pleasant location, in the midst of beautiful groves and rolling prairies, but, owing to various causes, prominent among which was the fact that the greater portion of the lands in the vicinity of the village were held by speculators, at prices above the views of settlers, she has owed the most of her prosperity to the fact of having been the county seat for about twenty years. Lately, however, these lands have been thrown into market, and, as well as large quantities of second rate government lands, at the low price fixed by the Graduation Act, have been eagerly bought up by actual settlers. Lancaster will soon be surrounded by a dense farming population, and a prosperous future seems to be opening before her.—[Plattsville American.

A Company Doing Business by Telegraph.—The Albany Argus states that a few evenings since, some business exigency on the Morse line demanded an immediate meeting of the Board of Directors. Ordinarily, this is no easy task, as the directors line "all along" the line from Buffalo to New York, but the question to be decided being one of some importance, a "meeting by telegraph was ordered." After the line had been closed for business—each member of the board having in the meantime, been notified by telegraph—the presiding officer opened the meeting, he living at Utica, and the business to be transacted was sent along the line, to each and every member. Votes were taken, motions put, seconded and carried, while the mover was hundreds of miles removed from the party seconding the same; objections were raised, speeches made and responded to, the same as though there had been a convention of the parties in a twelve by eight room. This is what we call doing business by telegraph to a great purpose.

Scene in the New Jersey Senate.—The Prohibitory Drinking Law in the New Jersey Legislature, was lost in the Senate, by a vote of 10 Nays to 9 Ayes. The announcement of the result was received in the crowded galleries not unkindly. From that popular height descended a storm of hissing. The Senate Chamber was thrown into the greatest confusion. Ladies hissed and sneered in the most vindictive fashion. The session was adjourned, and then poured on to the floor an angry crowd, who sharply criticised and condemned the act by which the People of New Jersey were cheated of their just expectations.—[Buffalo Democracy.

Real Estate Sale.—Mr. Wm. Lee, having been solicited to divide up his lot, on the corner of Oneida and Main Streets, so as to enable persons with small means to obtain business locations, has done so, and on Saturday sold two 23 by 60 feet lots on the west end to Mr. Siddell, and Harper & Brother, for $2900. There is a part of the lot yet for sale, on which is a good brick house.—Free Democrat.

A Word to Tax Payers.

The Election to-day determines the character of our City Government for a year to come, and the result of that election depends upon the Tax-Payers. How much the Administration of our City Officers for the past year has cost them individually they know without our telling them. The bill was an exorbitant one, but it had to be paid. There is no escaping the Tax-gatherer; but there is such a thing as cutting down his bills. This, however, must be done, if done at all, at the commencement of the political year. If you wait till the middle, or the close, you will find all interference unavailing. In other words: it is at the Annual Charter Election that Tax-Payers must provide against the visits of the Tax-Gatherer. It is only by choosing honest, competent and practical men—men who are accustomed to manage their own business carefully and successfully—to take charge of the complicated, costly and steadily enlarging machinery of our City Government, that expenditures can be kept within reasonable bounds, taxes reduced to their fair limits, and city affairs managed, not with a view to individual profit or political interests, but with strict regard to the public interest and the public welfare. It is for Tax-Payers to say whether such men shall be elected To-Day. Is it not wiser, and better and cheaper for each and every one of them, to devote this day to the business of Election, and to an honest and determined effort to secure the BEST MEN for our City Officers, than to suffer the election to go by default, and pay for their neglect or indifference at the end of the year, in the shape of another sweating Tax? Let them answer at the Polls

Shut To-day!

Upon the last election day, the closing of the saloons was undoubtedly the means of securing the most quiet election day ever had in this city: and the closing of the saloons was the more creditable to their proprietors, because voluntary.—Will not the proprietors pursue the same course to-day? We hope to be able to-morrow to record another peaceful election day having passed. Those gentlemen, who on the last election day shut their saloons, must have seen the benefit they conferred upon the whole city, by their voluntarily refusing to sell liquor on an election day; and as it was productive of so much good on that last, we hope they will follow the same plan to-day, and that the memorable words, "SHUT TO-DAY," will again decorate the saloons and bar rolls. To every man who takes pride in the peace and quietness of our city; in the right of every voter to proceed to the polls and vote as his conscience may direct, peaceably; to every one who wishes for, and loves good order, peace and quietness, and the prevention of fights, riots, and perhaps bloodshed, the words "SHUT TO-DAY," will carry force, and their import will be respected and obeyed. The example last year was set by some of the best men in the city, and if this morning they again take the lead, many others will be induced to follow, and the effect will be a second quiet and orderly election day; and none can have greater cause for just pride than those who first closed their saloons, and hung upon their doors the best sentence for the preservation of peace on election days—SHUT TO-DAY.

The Lecture To-Night.

We anticipate a full house at Young's Hall to hear John Pierpont's "Golden Calf," this evening. Mr. Pierpont has had several occasions to become pretty well known in the course of his life, and we believe has generally managed to do very much as he had a mind to, in spite of opposition. When he has chosen to do so, he has preached temperance to a congregation of distillers, and where they didn't like it, he has preached temperance again; and when he has thought he could make an improved razor strop, he has made razor strops, notwithstanding its offence to an aristocratic society; he has written anti-slavery odes when anti-slavery was an odious term, and we expect that in the "Golden Calf," he will say just what John Pierpont thinks, without the least reference to whom he may hit.

The Cleveland Herald, in announcing a second lecture from Mr. Pierpont, says—

Those who were present at his reading of "The Golden Calf," will be gratified to learn that they can again enjoy a similar treat, for we venture to say that no lecture has so delighted an audience in Cleveland as that.

Spring is Coming!—And yesterday was a voucher for the welcome fact. The air was balmy and delightful; the sunshine warm and bright, and the snow and ice dissolved rapidly under the warm breath of a glorious Spring day. A few days more of such weather will carry off every trace of winter and inaugurate the season of agitation for 1855.

City Marshal.

We are requested by Mr. W. R. Perry to say that after a full survey of the field and in deference to the wishes of many friends, he has concluded to withdraw his name as a candidate for City Marshal.

City Independent Convention.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock, S. S. Daggett in the Chair.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Mayor in the place of Orsero Comstock, declined.

James B. Martin received 18 votes, and was unanimously declared the candidate of the Convention. Before the Convention had dispersed, the following communication was received from James B. Martin. The President called the delegates to order, and the Secretary read the following Letter from Mr. Martin.

Gentlemen:—I have just received information that the "People's Convention," now in session, have made choice of my name to be submitted to the city electors for their suffrages at the approaching Charter election, for Mayoralty of the city.

For the honor you have conferred upon me, and the kindness received from your hands, I return you my unfeigned thanks.

Believing that it is a duty which every person owes his fellow-citizens when called upon by the people to serve them in a public capacity, to do so willingly, if he can conscientiously and consistently, and knowing that no one has a right to accept of any public office, no matter how small or great, or to engage in any important public duty, unless he is willing and intends to give it all the time, care, and attention, which it may demand—situated as I am at present, business requires all my time and care. My own business I would be willing should in a measure, be neglected to serve my fellow-citizens, but I cannot neglect that business which has been entrusted to my care by those at home and abroad, and some of them widows and orphans, for any worldly honor or consideration; for by so doing, I should fall far short of that rule which I have endeavored to make the standard of my life:—Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you.

My engagements are such that I expect to be absent from the city at least one-quarter of the present year, which of itself is sufficient reason why I should not accept.

Hoping that you may make choice of some one who will be a man and an honor and credit to our city—(a Mayor Wood, of New York,) one who will discharge his duties honestly, fearlessly and freely, not courting the smiles of the rich and neglecting the poor, but acknowledging them all as one family, and doing that which will be the greatest good to the greatest number; and without fear or favor, asking nothing and expecting nothing but the smiles of Heaven and the proud satisfaction of knowing that he has done his duty, his whole duty and nothing but his duty.

In after time, if I should be so situated as to serve you, and you should see fit to elect me, I would most cheerfully avail myself of the honor, and do all in my power to serve the people and advance the enviable name that we now enjoy, and the high rank which we hold among the cities of this union—numbered among the first in industry and enterprise, manufactures, and commerce;—a free-born city; an anti-Nebraska city; a city which has done so much to bring countless numbers to our shores to enjoy the same privileges and blessings which we now enjoy—equal liberty, equal laws and equal justice, and would that I could add a home for the homeless—120 acres for every man.

Yours truly,
JAMES B. MARTIN.

To the Delegates of the City Convention.

After the letter had been read by the Secretary, Mr. G. D. Norris moved that JAMES B. MARTIN be declared the nominee of the Convention, and that it adjourn and elect him. Carried. Convention adjourned.

The Mayor's Notice.—It will be seen that Mayor Kilbourn unites with the Sentinel in calling upon the Proprietors of all Taverns, Groceries, Beer Halls &c. to sell no Liquor on Election Day. The Mayor indeed, in a "postcript" of questionable taste, invites them to "let her go" after 4 P. M. We hope, however, that they will keep their bars closed so long as the Polls remain open (till 5 P. M.) at least.

PROCLAMATION.

BY THE MAYOR.

To all Tavern Keepers, Grocerymen and Bier Hall Keepers.

You are respectfully requested to keep closed against the sale of any Liquor, Wine or Beer, on election day, until 4 o'clock in the afternoon This is to preserve the good order and good name of the City, in which I expect all good citizens to unite with me.

BYRON KILBOURN, Mayor.

P. S.—After 4 o'clock P. M., you can "let her go."

Police Court--March 5.

Before Clinton Walworth Esq. Police Justice.

A warrant was issued against John Lipscomb, on complaint of Charles Foster, charging a threat to commit an assault and beat the complainant.

Real Estate Sale.—Caleb Wall sold yesterday, lots 1 and 2, block 24 Eastman's subdivision, First Ward, being 66 feet on Division St., (north side,) by 180 deep, for $2500.

Circuit Court.—In the forenoon the Court was occupied on a Replevin Suit, between Clarendon Rees, plaintiff, and John Swain, defendant. The Jury found the property to be in the plaintiff. In the afternoon, Louis Fillmer was placed in trial for resisting Constable Fisher while in the execution of his duty.

Withdrawn.—Geo. A. Mc garrigle, who last week announced himself as an independent candidate for constable of the First Ward, has withdrawn from the canvass and will support the candidate for that office, nominated at the First Ward People's caucus.

☞ We hope the democrats of the 1st Ward will not forget the nominee for Assessor, P. Nichols, but give him such a majority as his Hindoo opponent will remember for a season.—Wisconsin.

The "Hindoo opponent" at whom this illmannered fling is aimed, is James Murray, a good mechanic, an upright and intelligent citizen; a Scotchman by birth, and an American by adoption. He has once before filled the office of Assessor in the First Ward, and acquitted himself to the entire acceptation of the public.—Being an adopted citizen, it is not surprising that the Know-Nothing Wisconsin should stigmatize him as a "Hindoo."

Mr. Shoter.—On Saturday we should have said that we, (and not Mr. Shoter, the independent candidate in the First Ward,) considered that Mr. Shoter will beat Dr. Wolcott out of sight.—[Wisconsin.

Exactly. There is a material difference in value between Mr. Shoter's opinion and that of the Wisconsin on this point.

Horticultural Society.

At the annual meeting of the Milwaukee Horticultural Society, held March 3d, 1855, the meeting was called to order by the Vice President, and in the absence of the Secretary, R. Chandler was appointed Secretary pro tem.

Several amendments to the constitution were proposed, adopted and ordered printed. The Report of the Treasurer for 1854, was read, accepted and adopted. After transacting other business of importance, the Society proceeded to the election of Officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

President—Charles Gifford.
Vice Presidents—Henry Williams, B. McVicker.
Corresponding Secretary—Robert Chandler.
Recording Secretary—R. W. Parker.
Treasurer—D. Ferguson.
Executive Committee—O. H. Hurd, S. B. Grant, J. B. Doesman.

It was Resolved, That the first Exhibition of the Society be held on the last Thursday of June next.

On motion adjourned.

CHAS. GIFFORD, President.
Robt. Chandler, Secretary pro tem.

Look out for Illegal Votes!

At the Election in this City last November upwards of ONE THOUSAND Illegal Votes were offered at the different Polls, and excluded by the vigilance and determination of the Challengers. There will be an attempt to-day to rush in votes in certain Wards to help some hard-run candidates and the attempt will succeed, if not met and defeated by prompt and resolute challenging. There should be at least two good Challengers at each Poll, to challenge unhesitatingly every man offering to vote who is not known to be a qualified Elector.

Special Police.—The following Special Constables were sworn in yesterday for duty at the polls to-day:

1st Ward—A. Lisohart, Jno. Hardey, M. Higgins, Simeon Lerry.

2d Ward—L. N. Dowey, J. B. Neyer, Conrad Sass.

3d Ward—J. H. Cordes, J. French, Daniel Murphy.

4th Ward—P. Cannon, James Sprague, John Esch.

5th Ward—M. Page, F. Conrad, James Lewis.

If the Saloons and Drinking Shops are "shut to-day," there will be but little for these Special Constables to do.

Retrenchment and Reform.

The News of yesterday makes a very elaborate, though very lame attempt to convict the Sentinel of inconsistency, in urging Municipal "retrenchment and reform," because last fall we condemned the unheard-of and extravagant allowance of $500 to Dist. Attorney Mallory for defending Connaughty and the other day, in our report of the proceedings in the Circuit Court, embodied the generally expressed surprise of the public at Mr. Mallory's undertaking to prosecute Fassbinder for murder without associate Counsel.

As to the first, we have only to say that the entire press and public—the News alone excepted—united in condemning the action of the Supervisors. And as to the last, the Sentinel did but give utterance to the general opinion in and out of the Court-Room. The remarkably sagacious opinion of the News that the Sentinel wanted to transfer a $500 fee, from the pockets of the people to those of some "personal or partizan favorite," as counsel in said case, is too transparently silly to need reply.

Redeemed from Slavery.—The fugitive Slave Anthony Burns, who was captured and carried back to Virginia last year, at an expense to the General Government of about what it would cost to give us a good Harbor at Milwaukee, has been purchased from his master by some Boston gentlemen for the sum of $1500 and restored to liberty. Uncle Sam's services and expenses in the premises seem to have been "love's labor lost."

Vote on the Liquor Law!

The following is the vote in the Assembly by which the Prohibitory Liquor Law was passed:

Ayes—Messrs. Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bond, Chase, Colley, Davis, Downs, Field, Filer, Gary, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Howard, Island, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee, Lowe, Martin, Mcludoe, Merriam, Merrill, Mosher, Parker, Pratt, Randall, Ribble, Rose, Sherman, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Townsend, Virgin, Wakely Warren, Welch, Wherry, White, Williston, Sholes, Speaker—42.

Noes—Messrs. Barns, Bennett, Boyd, Carey, Delany, DeWolf, Earnest, Ebbets, Fisher, Gibb, Goss, Griffin, Hull, Juneau, Lavis, O'Neil, Ramsey, Reed, Schrage, B Smith, I H Smith, Thompson, Viles—23.

The following members were absent or not voting:—Messrs. Blaizer, Cole, Cross, Falvey, Goodrich, Goodall, H Grant, Hollenbeck, Hooper, Moscowitz, Rogan, Ruan, Schwefel, Stevens, Topliff, Van Nostrand, and Vliet—17.

Defining his Position.

Gen. Wilson, the newly elected Senator from Massachusetts, has addressed the following letter to the editor of the American Organ, at Washington, in answer to certain questions asked by him:

Senate Chamber, Feb. 19, 1855.

Dear Sir: My answer to your enquiries will be brief and explicit.

1st. I fully recognize the doctrine of state rights in its application to slavery, as well as to any other matter of public concern.

The Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1798, in the main, as I think, correctly set forth that doctrine.

The whole subject of slavery within state limits should be left absolutely to state legislation

2d. My response to your second question is included in my answer to your first. I do not entertain the opinion that Congress has any power to interfere with slavery as it exists under state laws.

3d. Every man who believes

A SAD ACCIDENT HAPPENED TO ME THIS MORNING. I was on my way to DANIEL NEWHALL Esq's Warehouse, to inform him that I had sold his residence. I was within fifty feet of his residence, when my sleigh tipped up against my horse's heels, and they started to run. I held on the reins and was thrown out. My son, who was with me, got out safely; but I was unfortunate enough to be kicked in the face, which, tho' not serious, may be a mark for life, which will show how uncertain all things are.

Although I am wounded and suffer somewhat from pain, I am yet prepared and ready to attend to all business in Real Estate operations. And I return thanks to Providence, that He preserved me and kept me from a more severe accident. CALEB WALL

[EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE SENTINEL.]

The Vote on the Collins Appropriation—Great Excitement in the House.

Washington, March 3.

Immediately after reading the veto message, Mr. Hunt, of Louisiana, rose, saying veto follows veto in rapid march. (Much excitement and confusion, with cries of order, order, hear him.)

Mr. Hunt, warmly—I am in order, I should feel unworthy of holding a place on this floor if I did not give utterance to the feelings of my heart. Veto follows veto in a rapid march of tyranny upon the liberties of our country. This abominable veto just brought into the House is the very blight of tyranny and usurpation, unknown to our ancestors, and without precedent. I desire gentlemen to remember that they are the representatives of independent people—the parliament sent here to express their mind.

Men met for grave conduct and patriotic purposes, and not slaves, the medium for recording the will of the Executive.

The times are melancholly indeed when the President dictates laws to the people, without allowing members the exercise of their individual judgement. This is a power never conferred by the Constitution, and if permitted and tolerated for an instant, will lead to the overthrow of the liberty of the country.

When our fathers put an end to monarchy they thought they had established a free country, but Franklin Pierce, by accident President, can dictate to a free people what they shall do in making laws. Some gentlemen, no doubt, would feel rather overwhelmed with grief and sorrow at a tyrant striking down the wall of the people.

Mr. Keitt, of South Carolina, moved the previous question amid excitement.

Mr. Chamberlain loudly and excitedly proclaimed "this is the resolution—" the remainder of the sentence was drowned in cries of "order," "order."

Mr. Wheeler moved that the House adjourn.

Mr. Walsh—If we adjourn now, we can meet to-morrow. [Cries of 'order,' 'order,' in startling tones.]

The speaker stated that the question was—shall the Ocean Mail Steamer Appropriation Bill pass, the President's objections to the contrary notwithstanding? Decided in the negative, 89 to 9, the Constitution requiring a two-thirds vote.

Several ineffectual attempts were made to consider the Harbor bill.

Mr. Houston—The Civil and Diplomatic bill has returned from the Senate with 135 amendments. As it is too late to refer to them, I move the House go into the Committee of the Whole on them. Agreed to, when the recess was taken.

SENATE—The bill making further appropriations for the satisfaction of Virginia land warrants was taken up, Mr. Stewart, a few minutes after 12, made it a point of order against the bill that it was the fourth of March. The question was discussed by Messrs Stewart and Mason.—Chairman, interposing—We can remain until 12 o'clock, noon, of the 4th.

Mr. Mason moved to take up the Virginia Land Warrant bill refused, 20 to 19.

30 A. M.—Another sharp discussion ensued on the extra Compensation resolution for the Senate Pages and Laborers on the public grounds passed.

30 A. M. No quorum.

On the Senate a motion for adjournment lost, no quorum voting. Senate embarrassed by unfinished business.

In the House there will probably nothing more done.

5:15 A. M.—Senate just goes into Executive Session.

The House passed Senate amendment appropriating $250,000 for construction of the Washington Aqueduct, and concurred in striking out the Tariff amendment, the latter by a vote of 85 to 30.

The reports of the different committees of conference were agreed to and bills passed.

House quite orderly and no fights as heretofore. Extra pay voted to the officers and pages as usual. Unanimous vote of thanks to Speaker Boyd. All pending private bills referred to Committee on Music at the Reduced Rates.

IMPORTANT TO BOOKSELLERS, PERIODICAL DEALERS, AND OTHERS.—WANTED—An energetic and popular Dealer in this City, to sell the extensive and popular Catalogue of Music of HORACE WATERS, No. 333 Broadway, New York. Owing to the reduction in the prices of Music made by Mr. Waters, the dealers refuse to grant him the usual sales of the trade, to sell his music; and in order that the community may procure his catalogue, and avail themselves of the reduction, and not be forced to pay the old rates, the combination of dealers, he desires to enter into an arrangement with some person as above. Please address him at his place of business 333 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

[EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE SENTINEL.]

The Vote on the Collins Appropriation—Great Excitement in the House.

Washington, March 3.

Immediately after reading the veto message, Mr. Hunt, of Louisiana, rose, saying veto follows veto in rapid march. (Much excitement and confusion, with cries of order, order, hear him.)

Mr. Hunt, warmly—I am in order, I should feel unworthy of holding a place on this floor if I did not give utterance to the feelings of my heart. Veto follows veto in a rapid march of tyranny upon the liberties of our country. This last inimitable veto just brought into the House is the very height of tyranny and usurpation, unknown to our ancestors, and without precedent. I desire gentlemen to remember that they are the representatives of independent people—the parliament sent here to express their mind.

Men met for grave conduct and patriotic purposes, and not slaves, the medium for recording the will of the Executive.

The times are melancholily indeed when the President dictates laws to the people, without allowing members the exercise of their individual judgement. This is a power never conferred by the Constitution, and if permitted and tolerated for an instant, will lead to the overthrow of the liberty of the country.

When our fathers put an end to monarchy they thought they had established a free country, but Franklin Pierce, by accident President, can dictate to a free people what they shall do in making laws. Some gentlemen, no doubt,
